Dear Mr. Morris:

Your resignation as an Associate Member of The American Numismatic Society was placed before the Council at its meeting which was held yesterday, May 9th.

I beg to inform you that your resignation was accepted and is to take effect at the end of this year, 1924, as requested by you.

Regretting your decision to resign, and trusting that at some future date we may have the pleasure of re-electing you as an Associate Member in our Society, I am,

Very truly yours,

Secretary
